Thank You

In 2011, through the Watertown Urban Mission you provided food for the hungry, drink for the thirsty, clothes for the naked, comfort to the imprisoned, shelter to the homeless and aid to the sick, just as Christ called us each to do every day.

Your support provided more than:

- 301,000 meals and 1,350 cans of baby formula;
- 10,000 articles of clothing, 450 pieces of furniture, and 6,800 household items;
- 30 individuals with help changing their lives to overcome addiction and stay out of trouble with the law;
- 300 individuals with help finding secure housing;
- 170 individuals with prescriptions and more than 225 with gas vouchers to get to medical appointments.

Your neighbors needed your help more than ever this year, and you stepped up to make sure help is available

Without your support and the support of likeminded individuals, businesses, organizations and our local churches, we could not have the programs available for our neighbors to overcome their struggles and feel the love of God.
