Make Your Gift Go Farther

When you donate to the Watertown Urban Mission Food Pantry, you help to give about 550 families each month the hand up they need to overcome their struggle.

And when you give in the months of March and April, a Rhode Island philanthropist has offered a $1 million grant challenge to make your donation of food or money to the Food Pantry even greater.

He calls it the Feinstein Challenge. Last year, your donations and his totaled more than $19,000 in food and money. Help us do even better this year...Make your donation in March & April and let's work together to leverage as much as we can to feed our neighbors!
