Check out these fun opportunities to help your neighbors in need

Winter is on its Way!

Last Winter, you gave enough coats, hats, mittens, gloves, scarves & more to keep more than 1,000 of your neighbors warm!

Will you help again this winter?

Your donation of a gently used or new coat in any size, for an adult or a child, will take the edge off of this winter's chill and warm the heart of a person in need of hope.

So if it's handmade scarves, men's work gloves, children's boots, the jacket you wore last year that still has some life in it, or another winter supply, drop it off at your Mission's Critical Needs program and it'll go to good use.

UPCOMING EVENTS!

- October 9 — CiCi's Pizza and Cold Stone Creamery, 1222 Arsenal St., will donate a portion of ALL sales from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. to your Mission!
- November 15 — Musical Mission returns for its second year at Holy Family Church, 129 Winthrop St., Watertown, bringing together music from across denominations to help your Mission serve neighbors in need!
- December 1 — The Watertown Urban Mission's 3rd annual Craft Fair & Market at the Dulles State Office Building will help you get your Christmas shopping done with local vendors in support of your Mission!
