Food Pantry

With the help of our churches and individual donors we were able serve 200 families with items to make Christmas Dinner. Thank you!

January and February are the coldest time of the year for the North Country. We are looking for warm dinners, such as soup, stew, and spaghetti sauce.

Healthy Cooking Course
Thursday, January 23
2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

For more information and to register, call Anita @ 782-8440

Our friends at TOP's Supermarket, Washington Street, Watertown donated a whole pallet of food to the Mission's Food Pantry. This comes as a huge blessing to the Mission, especially during the holiday season!
