Concert Unites Local Community to Support Your Neighbors in Need

Holy Family Church to Host 6th Annual Musical Mission Concert to Benefit Your Mission

WATERTOWN (November 9, 2016) — This Sunday, November 12th, local musicians will once again join together at Holy Family Church to raise money for the programs of the Watertown Urban Mission which provide help to local individuals and families more than 40,000 times each year.

“Since the start of the Watertown Urban Mission, churches across denominations have come together to help and serve local people in need. This joint effort is celebrated through the Musical Mission Concert, which brings the community together to support those served by the programs of the Mission,” said Joanna Loomis, executive director.

Now in its sixth year, the Musical Mission Concert will be held November 12th at 2 p.m. at Holy Family Church, 129 Winthrop St., Watertown. This year’s event will showcase a variety of musical genres from folk to classical, with performances by Remington Corners, Case Middle School Chorus, the Indian River Strings, and Holy Family’s own Ed Kemp.

“Everyone is welcome to come enjoy this wonderful afternoon of music, fellowship, and unity,” added Fr. Steven Murray, pastor at Holy Family Church and past-President of the Mission’s Board of Directors.

The Holy Family Evangelization Committee organized the event with the Watertown Urban Mission. While there is no charge for admission and free refreshments will be offered, the church will take up a free will offering in support of the Mission’s programs.

Musicians or groups interested in participating in next year’s Musical Mission Concert are encouraged to reach out to the Watertown Urban Mission’s development director, Jessica Piatt at 315-782-8440 or by email at development@watertownurbanmission.org.
