Join The Watertown Urban Mission for Money Talks: Credit & Debt

Watertown N.Y. (February 8, 2018) – The Watertown Urban Mission and Northern Credit Union have partnered to provide free financial education to the community with a series entitled Money Talks. The seminars are free, open to the public, and designed to help participants increase their financial wellness and achieve financial goals.

“The first session was a great success, and we’re looking forward to our next session on credit and debt. Participants will gain valuable insights to help them manage their money,” said Joanna Loomis, the Watertown Urban Mission’s Executive Director. Each event in the series will be held at the Watertown Urban Mission, 247 Factory Street, on the last Tuesday of the month from 2 pm to 4 pm.

Future topics include:

- February 27th - Credit & Debt: The Duo You Need to Know About
- March 27th - Wheels & Deals: What You Need to Know to Buy a Car
- April 24th - Buying A Home: It Can Be Attainable & Affordable!
- May 29th - Money Saving Strategies: Get More Bang For Your Buck
- June 26th - Protecting Yourself From Identity Theft and Fraud

If you’re interested in attending any of the talks, please RSVP at www.mynorthern.com/moneytalks, or call the Mission at (315) 782-8440. Everyone who attends will be entered to win a $10 Price Chopper gift card. If attendees come to five out of the seven sessions, they will be entered to win a $100 Price Chopper gift card!

About the Watertown Urban Mission: Centrally located in the City of Watertown, the Watertown Urban Mission serves residents in the city and throughout Jefferson County. It works with other community service organizations to ensure needs are met adequately and efficiently. With generous donor and volunteer support, the Mission helps people rise above their circumstances and in turn, this strengthens our community as a whole.
