Money Saving Strategies: Get More Bang for Your Buck!

Watertown, NY (June 20, 2018) – The Watertown Urban Mission and Northern Credit Union have partnered to provide free financial education to the community with a series entitled Money Talks. The seminars are free, open to the public, and designed to help participants increase their financial wellness and achieve financial goals.

Join us on Tuesday, June 26 for Money Saving Strategies: Get More Bang for Your Buck. The event will be held from 2-4 p.m. at Northern Credit Union on 120 Factory Street, Watertown. We will be sharing information about free resources and opportunities to help you stick to and stretch your budget.

The final seminar in the series will be held July 31 and addresses identity theft and fraud.

Please RSVP at www.mynorthern.com/moneytalks. Everyone who attends will be entered to win a $10 Price Chopper gift card. If attendees come to five out of the seven sessions, they will be entered to win a $100 Price Chopper gift card!

“We are proud to have this partnership with Northern Credit Union to help bring relevant money management sessions to our community,” said Joanna Loomis, Executive Director, Watertown Urban Mission. “The feedback from the first sessions has been great.”
