Join the Watertown Urban Mission for The Next Money Talks Session – Staying Safe from Fraud: Protect Yourself from Common Scams and Identity Theft!

Watertown, NY (July 23, 2018) – The Watertown Urban Mission and Northern Credit Union have partnered to provide free financial education to the community with a series entitled Money Talks. The seminars are free, open to the public, and designed to help participants increase their financial wellness and achieve financial goals.

Join us on Tuesday, July 31 for Staying Safe from Fraud: Protect Yourself from Common Scams and Identity Theft. The event will be held from 2pm -4pm at Northern Credit Union on 120 Factory Street, Watertown. We will be sharing information about common scams and how to stay safe from them. You can expect to learn about:

- Scams targeted at the elderly
- Internet scams, including work-from-home scams
- Best practices to protect your identity
- How to report suspected fraud

Please RSVP at www.mynorthern.com/moneytalks. Everyone who attends will be entered to win a $10 Price Chopper gift card. If attendees come to five out of the seven sessions, they will be entered to win a $100 Price Chopper gift card!

“We are proud to be able to provide the community with relevant information about how to protect their identity and financial well-being,” said Joanna Loomis, Executive Director, Watertown Urban Mission. “The feedback so far has been positive and we are looking forward to continuing this partnership with Northern Credit Union.”

About The Watertown Urban Mission

Centrally located in the City of Watertown, the Watertown Urban Mission serves residents in the city and throughout Jefferson County. It works with other community service organizations to ensure needs are met adequately and efficiently. With generous donor and volunteer support, the Mission helps people rise above their circumstances and in turn, this strengthens our community as a whole.
